built by Frenchmen. A giant golden statue of Sakyamuni Buddha raising a lotus in his hand – a symbolic image of Buddha in Linh Son Dharma Conference. Dalat's cooler mountain climate is ideal for growing a wide range of flowers. The garden beds are filled with beautiful examples of all the locally grown blooms, such as roses, mimosas, and the more difficult to grow orchids. Da Lat Flower Park is well-known for its diverse flower species. Overnight in Dalat.

DAY 4

DALAT COUNTRYSIDE TOUR

(Breakfast/Lunch/-)

On the way to Van Thanh Flower Village, you will breathe in fresh air and get a glimpse into the daily lives of the locals. Many different types of flowers have been planted here to make our lives more beautiful! We'll continue across Ta Nung pass, taking in the entire view of Nam Ban town and the massive sight of the jungle. Coffee Plantation and Weasel Coffee Workshop (Kopi luwak or civet coffee): sample coffee (fee not included) and learn about the coffee-making process. Then take a stroll through the K'Ho minority village. The Silk Factory is the most interesting part of this tour because you can see the silkworms being raised and the silk being made. You will be impressed by the imposing wild scene of Elephant Waterfall, the widest waterfall in Lam Dong province! thunderous roaring! Climbing the cement stairs to the hill, you will see a solemn pagoda – Linh An Pagoda – with two august dragons flanking two sides. Then, according to local belief, touching the massive Happy Buddha can bring you happiness and luck. Have you tried local rice wine? Let's see how they make it and sample some at the Organic Rice Wine Workshop! Cricket Farm is the last place in the countryside to enjoy fried crickets (included fee). Stay the night in Dalat City.

DAY 5

DALAT – SAIGON

(Breakfast/-/-)
