- Otaru Sakaimachi Street - This is an attractive, preserved merchant street, a short walk from the canal area.

➢ Many of the buildings here have since been converted into restaurants, cafes, souvenir shops, boutiques and museums. You may also try hands on experience on creating local Otaru Glass in the few workshops.

➢ Lake Toya & Observatory - Lake Toya is part of the Shikotsu-Toya National Park. In addition to the lake itself, the Toya region features hot springs and an active volcano, Mt Usu, which last erupted in the year 2000. Take in stunning views of Lake Toya from the observatory.

DAY 3 LAKE TOYA - NOBORIBETSU - SAPPORO

(Breakfast)

➢ Showa Shinzan - This is one of Japan's youngest mountains. DAY 4 SAPPORO (FREE DAY)

(Breakfast)

Your day to explore the city on your own or you may consider to add on our suggested tour or simply shop to your heart's content.

Our suggested add on tour for 10hrs:

SAPPORO - FURANO - SAPPORO

- Ningle Terrace - The charming little hidden village emanates a magical air. Its small cottages, linked between wooden pontoons are small shops offering a special shopping experience.
- Campana Rokkatei - Boasting a view of grapevines sprawling across almost 80,000sqm of rolling hillsides, with Mt Tokachi right in front, this is an ideal place for viewing the Daisetsuzan Volcanic Group while indulging in sweets available exclusively in Furano.
- Shirogane Blue Pond - Owing to natural minerals dissolved in the water, the Blue Pond's deep hues, dotted with withered Japanese larch trees, make for a surreal spectacle.
- Bieisenka Honten - This gift shop is known for its breath-taking landscapes and vibrant seasonal flowers. It specializes in a wide array of local handicrafts and artisanal products.
