DAY 2 HAT YAI – CITY DAY TOUR

(Breakfast / Lunch / X)

Today proceed for the following Hat Yai sightseeing;

■ Hat Yai Nail Temple

■ Stainless Steel Temple : It is generally called "Wat Stainless" or "Chedi Stainless"

■ Hat Yai Municipal Park : A popular recreational spot for the local residents, the park is beautifully decorated with colorful flowers. With a pavilion in the middle of the pond, an aviary, and food stalls, the park is the perfect place to spend a peaceful evening. Additional attractions include a statue of King Rama V that is enshrined at the foot of the hill near the aviary, a hill-top Brahman shrine and a jade statue of Guan-yin, the Chinese Goddess situated, at the southern foothill near the boy-scout camp.

■ Samila Beach: is a perfect place to relax for local people and travelers alike. The viewpoint with beautiful scenery, with a mermaid statue sitting on the rocks, called the "Golden Mermaid".

■ Khlong Hae Floating Market (Open on every weekend Fri/Sat/Sun only) : The famous floating market in Hat Yai. The concept of floating markets has been an important part of Thai life for centuries, with vendors selling their fresh produce, local handicrafts, and delicious street food from boats along the canals. Khlong Hae Floating Market captures this traditional way of life and offers us an authentic Thai experience. (Note: No replacement of other sightseeing if customer visiting falls on weekday.)
